THE NILAI-BROOKES CONNECTION

The collaboration between Nilai University College and Oxford Brookes began in 1998 when both institutions collaborated to offer the 3+0 degrees.

When we became a university college in 2007, our partnership continued with Oxford Brookes awarding an award of equal standing alongside the Nilai University College degrees.

Oxford Brookes is ranked amongst the top universities in the United Kingdom and has been consistently named the leading New University by the Times Higher Education Guide.
